Please Keep for Your Records

- The Asset of the Participant and control of the Asset remains with the Participant. The Asset is held by the Foundation in a custodial capacity only for investment purposes and not as a trust. Foundation shall manage the Asset according to the Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act as provided by California statutes.
- Foundation shall invest and reinvest the Asset in compliance with Participant's instructions. The Participant may choose to allocate the Asset among the investment options offered by the Foundation, including, but not limited to one or more Common Investment Funds and the underlying portfolios that constitute the Common Investment Funds maintained by the Foundation. Foundation may employ consultants and advisors concerning management of the Asset and its Common Investment Funds and the underlying portfolios that constitute its Common Investment Funds. Foundation shall furnish Participant a quarterly account statement showing status and earnings of the Asset. Foundation shall pay income, or make distribution, on the Asset in accordance with the written directions of the Participant and the then current policies of the Foundation. Foundation shall at all times hold and administer the Asset in accordance with the terms of Foundation's Investment Policy as may be modified by the Foundation from time to time.
- Foundation shall, upon specific instructions of Participant, separately invest such portion of the Asset(s) as Participants shall require, provided, however, that on such separately invested Assets, Foundation shall deduct its cost recovery charge prior to determining the net income of such separately invested Asset.
- Participant acknowledges that the Foundation will receive a management fee in accordance with its stated schedule. The fees are based on the market value of the assets under management and are calculated by applying the annual fee percentage to the total market value of the Asset, multiplied by a fraction, the denominator of which is the number of days in the applicable year and the numerator of which is the number of days during which such assets were under management. All fees shall be payable from the assets invested by the Participant with the Foundation.
- Participant or Foundation may cancel this Agreement at any time by a 90 day written notice. Upon termination, the Foundation shall distribute all assets then held by it hereunder to the Participant.
- Participant may withdraw income and principal at any time during the term of this Agreement upon 30 days prior written notice, signed by the designated representative of Participant. The Foundation reserves the right to distribute assets in kind rather than be required to liquidate the assets. The Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with laws of the State of California. 7
- The Foundation's income comes primarily from five sources: (a) management fees for assets managed by the Foundation through its Trust Division; (b) management and related fees earned through its Lending Services Division; (c) investment income; (d) gifts and (e) other miscellaneous sources.
- Participant represents that it is recognized as exempt from federal income tax under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is one, or more, of the following: (i) Baptist institution, agency, commission, foundation, association or church affiliated with the California Southern Baptist Convention, the Southern Baptist Convention or other state Baptist Conventions; or (ii) a trust with either its total remainder or its income for a predetermined period designated for charitable organizations in accordance with IRS guidelines and at least one-half the distribution designated to be made to a Baptist institution, agency, commission, association or church affiliated with the California Southern Baptist Convention, the Southern Baptist Convention or other state Baptist Conventions; or (iii) such other qualified charitable trust or entity, which may or may not be affiliated with said Baptist Conventions, the Assets of which the Board of Directors of the California Baptist Foundation determines it will receive and administer.
- Participant acknowledges that the entirety of the Asset consists of funds of a charitable entity. The Participant warrants that none of the assets transferred by the Participant to the Foundation are held for retirement plans.
- Participant acknowledges that it has received and reviewed the Investment Policy of the Foundation and that it, or its representatives, possesses such knowledge and experience in investments of this type to evaluate the risks and merits of the investment options made available by the Foundation. The Participant acknowledges that the Foundation does not guarantee the results of its investment strategies. Past investment performance history is not an indicator, nor a guarantee of future performance.
- All notices and requests after the date of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been duly given if in writing and delivered or sent by U.S. mail, to the respective addresses set forth at the beginning of this Agreement.
- The Participant is prohibited from assigning, encumbering or otherwise transferring its interests in the investment option made available by the Foundation under the terms of this Agreement. This paragraph shall not affect the Participant's right to distributions as provided elsewhere in this Agreement.
- In consideration of the services provided in this Agreement, Participant agrees to release and hold harmless Foundation, its officers, directors and employees, for any errors or omissions that may occur in relation to Foundation's good faith performance of its duties. In particular and without limitation, Participant acknowledges that it understands that the Asset is subject to gains or losses due to market conditions, the economy and the performance of particular investments, and agrees to, and hereby does, release and hold the Foundation harmless from any claims that Participant might have in the future arising out of such errors or omissions.

Helpful Information:

- EFT can be used to make routine transfers to or from your bank.
- ACH payments are usually received by your checking or savings account by the next business day.
- Wire payments are usually received by your checking or saving accounts the same business day. Wire payments have to be received by 12:00 pm in order for the funds to be transferred the same day.
- Regardless of transfer type, your first distribution may take longer than your future payments so that bank account information can be confirmed.
- The bank routing number used for your checking or savings account may be different from the routing number for ACH payments or the number listed on your checks/account statements. If you are unsure that you have the correct routing number please contact your bank.

Privacy Statement

You understand that the Foundation will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- (i) Where it is necessary for completing transfers, or
- (ii) In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant, or
- (iii) In order to comply with a government agency or court order, or
- (iv) If you give the Foundation your written permission.

Fees

There is no fee to use the EFT service to send payments via ach, although your financial institution may charge transaction fees. To send funds via wire, there is a $12 wire fee and your financial institution may charge additional fees.

Business Days

For purposes of EFTs, the Foundation's business days are Monday through Friday. Bank and New York Stock Exchange holidays are not included.

Stop Payment Procedures

If you have told the Foundation in advance to make regular distributions out of your Foundation account, you can stop any of these payments by calling or writing to the Foundation using the contact information listed above. Your notice must be made in time for the Foundation to receive your request at least three (3) business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, the Foundation may, as an additional measure, require you to put your request in writing and get it to the Foundation within fourteen (14) days after you call.

Liability for Failure to Make Covered Transfers

If the Foundation does not complete a transfer to or from your Foundation account on time or in the correct amount according to Foundation's agreement with you, the Foundation may be liable for your losses or damages.

However, there are some exceptions. The Foundation will not be liable for instance:

- If, through no fault of the Foundation's, you do not have enough money in your Foundation account to make the transfer.
- If the money in your Foundation account is subject to legal process or other claim restricting such transfer.
- If the transfer would exceed your margin availability, if any.
- If the bank account information you provided to the Foundation when you established the EFT service was incorrect or has subsequently become incorrect.
- If circumstances beyond the Foundation's control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transaction, despite reasonable precautions taken by the Foundation.
- If there was a technical malfunction which was known to you at the time you attempted to initiate a transfer or, in the case of a preauthorized transfer, at the time the transfer should have occurred.
- There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

Resolution

In the case of errors or questions about your transfer, you will call or write the Foundation using the contact information listed below, promptly. You will call or write the Foundation if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement. The Foundation must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after the Foundation sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. You will:

- Tell the Foundation your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer that you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell the Foundation the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you notify the Foundation orally, the Foundation may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. The Foundation will tell you the results of its investigation within ten (10) business days after the Foundation hears from you and will correct any error promptly. If the Foundation needs more time, however, it may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your complaint or question. If the Foundation decides to do this, it will credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount that you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes the Foundation to complete its investigation. If the Foundation asks you to put your request or question in writing and it does not receive it within ten (10) business days the Foundation may not credit your account. For questions involving new accounts, we may take up to ninety (90) days to investigate your complaint or question. With respect to new accounts, we may take up to twenty (20) business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error. The Foundation will inform you of the results of its investigation within three (3) business days of its completion. If the Foundation decides that there was no error, the Foundation will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that the Foundation used in the investigation.
